

Study Guide: "In the Garden"

Quiz

1. What is the Oxford Reading Tree series, and what level is "In the Garden" part of?
2. Who are the main characters in "In the Garden"?
3. Where do the adventures in the story take place?
4. What types of things do the characters encounter in the garden?
5. Describe the illustrations used in the book.
6. How is the language in "In the Garden" described, and why?
7. What kind of reading skills is Level 6 of the Oxford Reading Tree designed to help develop?
8. What do the children do for fun in "In the Garden"?
9. What is the general tone or atmosphere of "In the Garden"?
10. How does the book's design cater to young, developing readers?

Answer Key

1. The Oxford Reading Tree series is a set of graded reading books for children. "In the Garden" is part of Level 6.
2. The main characters are Biff, Chip, and Kipper.
3. The adventures in the story take place in the characters' garden.
4. The characters encounter various garden creatures as they have never seen them before.
5. The illustrations are described as colourful.
6. The language is described as simple and repetitive to make it engaging and easy for young readers to follow.
7. Level 6 aims to develop fluency in reading longer texts.
8. The children play in the sunshine and have fun exploring.
9. The tone or atmosphere of the book is generally fun and lighthearted.
10. The book's colorful illustrations and simple, repetitive language are designed to engage young, developing readers and enhance their understanding.

Glossary of Key Terms

Oxford Reading Tree: A popular series of leveled reading books designed to support children's literacy development.

Level 6: A specific reading level within the Oxford Reading Tree series intended for children who are becoming more fluent readers.

Narrative: A story or account of a series of events, especially one that is presented as a complete and meaningful whole.

Setting: The time and place in which a story occurs.

Themes: Underlying ideas or messages explored in a text.